Islamic Nikaah Form

Please complete the form and return it back to the Mosque office at least one week before the Nikaah date.

Please read the following before completing this form.

- ☐ On the day of the Nikaah the following people must be present to sign the certificate In front of the Imam for the Nikaah to go ahead. a) Bride and Groom b) Both the Wali / Guardians of the bride and groom and c) Two witnesses one from each side.
- ☐ Bride's Nikaah will be done first in front of the above mentioned people, if she agrees and accepts this groom as her husband then the grooms Nikaah will take place.
- ☐ If for any reason the bride or groom or any of the guardians refuse this Nikaah, then the Nikaah will be void or postponed until the next date.
- ☐ The bride and groom must accept each other by themselves without any pressure.
- ☐ It is Fardh (obligatory) of the groom to pay the Mahr to the bride.
- ☐ Nikaah fees needs to be made before the Nikaah takes place.
- ☐ Please secure a car park space for the Imam if the nikaah is taking place in any other venue.

Do's and don'ts for the Imam

- ☐ The Imam will do the Khutbah prior to leading the Nikaah.
- ☐ Two certificates will be provided after the Nikaah, one for the bride and one for the Groom
- ☐ There can be a brief talk in English (a reminder about our duties towards our families and the loved ones) upon request, before or after the Nikaah.
- ☐ The Imam can lead Salah (prayer) if it's due in the Nikaah time where men and ladies can participate and pray in congregation (if space provided).
- ☐ The program of the Nikaah will be completed with a Dua (Supplication) for happiness, and success for the future of this newly wedded Husband and wife and every present around them.
- ☐ The Imam is not responsible to deal with divorce, please contact the local Masjid who Provide support in this topic in your town or city.

Please fill the form in block capital writing!

Please provide the following documents with the form:
